SB 151 by Senate Ways and Means Committee	Medicaid; relating to charitable donations by certain persons	In Senate Ways and Means	02/02/2009 - Senate Referred to Ways and Means	None	151
Primary / Secondary / All	Senate Bill 151 disallows Medicaid recipients residing in a Medicaid-approved institution and receiving long-term care from donating more than $100 a month to any charitable organization (501 (c)). The bill applies to residents and spouses of residents in Medicaid institutions. Under this act, any donation of more than $100 per month shall not be considered as a nonexempt transfer of property and may be the basis of loss of Medicaid eligibility. The bill directs the KHPA to seek any waivers necessary to carry out this requirement, and implement the provisions of the bill only if such required waivers to federal program requirements have been obtained from the federal government. If no waivers are necessary for the enforcement of the act, eligibility rules and regulations are to be updated within 12 months of the effective date of the act.
